Our Fees

Registering on Goparkapp.com, listing a space and making an offer for a space is free, although you will remain responsible for the costs of accessing and using the Site (internet access, electricity, etc.).

By using our site and engaging in communication with other Goparkapp.com users, 'Space Owners' and 'Parkers' agree to declare the amounts paid or received for a particular parking space on request by relevant Tax gathering authorities in your region.

The fee payable to Goparkapp.com by parking space owners, for successful rentals, is 20% charge on the total amount received for each parking space booking (This amount includes all processing fees). This fee is applicable over the entire duration of the parking space rental period and over future periods if the rental agreement is renewed. Our commission fees deducted automatically from the PayPal transfer before it reaches your PayPal account.

At our discretion we may modify this policy on any date, and any amendments will be effective at the point when we add the new terms and conditions on this page. We can at our discretion change some or all of our services at any time. In the chance that we introduce a new service, the fees attached to that service are immediately effective upon launch of the service all users will be notified upon logging into their account.

Termination of Accounts

The conditions involved with terminating accounts are as follows: All users who remain a member of our site, Goparkapp.com must keep their account active. Upon active bookings coming to an end and no are due to be renewed, you will then be able to disable your Goparkapp.com account.

Circumventing Fees with Offline Bookings

Unless you already have an agreement existing between you and the Company, all attempts to arrange parking bookings outside of the Goparkapp.com bookings services are treated as attempts to defraud the Company and may lead to your account receiving penalties or a suspension.
